Harrison in Boston.

AN ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME.

The Officers of the State and City Privately Receive the President at the Hotel Vendome—A Public Reception in Faneuil Hall, Thousands Being Unable to Gain Admission.

Boston, Aug. 8.—President Benjamin Harrison and party arrived in this city at 9:30 a. m. As early as 8 o'clock crowds began to gather about the station, and when the train arrived the depot and adjacent streets were packed with humanity. At 8:30 Lieutenant Governor Brackett and staff, with Mayor Hart, arrived at the station and made their way to the platform, accompanied by Lieut. Col. Mansfield, United States engineer corps, who is detailed as a special aid to the president.

Immediately upon the arrival of the train Lieutenant Governor Brackett boarded the special car and cordially greeted the president. The party then left the train and moved along the platform, kept free from the crowd by a cordon of police to the entrance at Kneeland street where carriages were in waiting to convey the guests to the Hotel Vendome. When the president appeared at the entrance cheer after cheer went up from the crowd. The enthusiasm was continued along the entire route from the depot to the hotel, the president bowing his acknowledgments.

The party were escorted in five carriages by the first battalion of cavalry companies. A National lancers and d'Roxbury horse guards with the battalion bugle corps of sixteen men and a police detail. The first carriage contained the President, Lieutenant Governor Brackett and Gen. Dalton. Next in order were Mayor Hart, Secretary Windom and Col. Mansfield; then Secretary Proctor, Surgeon General Holt and Gen. Shepard; in the fourth were Col. Rotch, Col. Hoar, Secretary Halford and Col. Newman; and in the fifth Col. Currier, Col. Wallace, Col. Abbott and Col. Weil. Many of the buildings and stores along the route were gay with flags, bunting and appropriate mottoes and the sidewalks, windows and streets were thronged with people anxious to get a view of the president.

As the head of the procession turned into Tremont street a detachment of Battery A began firing a salute, continuing until the president arrived at the Vendome. As the carriage containing the distinguished party dashed up to the Vendome the occupants were cheered. The president jumped nimbly from the carriage and stepped rapidly up the hotel steps, followed by Secretaries Windom, Proctor and Private Secretary Halford. The detail of cadets in the hallway "turned out the guard" in honor of the president and National secretaries.

The president and those immediately accompanying him were then escorted to the reception room, and thence to the elegant suites reserved for them. At 10:30 a. m. the president with his party ranged themselves round the tables in the marble breakfast room, whose whole aspect suggested skillful catering to the aesthetic taste as well as to the palate.

After a brief rest in his private apartments following breakfast the president entered the ebony room, and there received the officers of the state and city. Federal officers, officers of the United States army and navy, mayors of cities and others to whom invitations had been sent. The reception lasted from 11:30 until 12:40 p. m., during which time about 500 persons paid their respects to the president.

At the close of the reception President Harrison again retired to his private apartments, where he rested quietly until 12:45 p. m., when the party entered carriages, and escorted by the cavalry started for Faneuil hall, where the popular reception took place. Faneuil hall square was filled with people long before the distinguished visitors made their appearance, and the moment the doors of the hall were opened the crowd surged forward and forced its way past the detail of police stationed at the entrance, who were unable to prevent themselves being carried along by the pressure. The hall was quickly packed, and the doors were then closed, shutting out thousands, who were not slow in manifesting their disappointment.

As the president appeared in sight shout after shout went up, continuing until the carriage had traversed the square and the presidential party had alighted and passed through the Adams street entrance. The president was immediately escorted to the platform, where were already seated a number of city officials and prominent citizens.

After a brief introductory speech by Mayor Hart, the handshaking commenced and continued for an hour. During the reception music was rendered by a band stationed in the gallery.

When the public reception had ended the gentlemen on the platform were individually introduced to the president, who was then escorted back to the Hotel Vendome. The party was enthusiastically greeted along the streets. After a short rest at the hotel the president proceeded to the Blue dining room, where Mayor Hart had invited him to partake of luncheon, to which various representatives of the city had been invited. The luncheon was an entirely informal affair, the guests numbering but twenty-one.

At its close the president returned to his private apartments and prepared for a suburban drive tendered by the city government. This embraced a tour of the most beautiful parts of Boston's environs, the start being made from the Vendome at 5:25 p. m.

The president returned from the drive about 8 o'clock, having been driven as far as Brookline, where refreshments were served at the residence of Hon. John A. Chandler.

During the evening a concert, complimentary to the president, was given by a band of one hundred pieces on the wall of the commons, and it is estimated that 25,000 people gathered in the neighborhood. The presidential party retired at about 10:50, and left for Bar Harbor at 9 o'clock this morning.

From 5 to 6 p. m. Private Secretary Halford held a reception at the Boston Press club rooms, where he was presented to a large number of newspaper men of Boston by the president of the club, Col. Charles H. Taylor.

Mrs. Maybrick Found Guilty of Murder and Sentenced to Death—Other News.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 8.—The jury in the case of Mrs. Maybrick, who has been on trial for the murder of her husband, brought in a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Maybrick was thereupon sentenced to death.

The announcement of the verdict of guilty in the Maybrick case, causes great excitement among all classes of people here, who have been watching the trial with intense interest. After the verdict became known thousands of people assembled around the entrance to the court room and waited for the departure of the judge. As soon as he made his appearance, he was greeted with howls of rage, and the hooting of the crowd was kept up for a long time. There were incessant cries of shame, and an attack upon the judge's carriage was only prevented by the active interference of the police. The feeling in Liverpool against the verdict is intense. Steps have been taken to secure a stay of execution, on the ground of the discovery of further medical evidence.

Inspecting the British Fleet.

LONDON, Aug. 8.—Emperor William, of Germany, and his brother, Prince Henry, in company of the Prince of Wales, inspected the royal yacht squadron yesterday, and afterwards dined together on board the royal yacht. The Prince of Wales warmly toasted the emperor and expressed his confidence that the great German army and the British fleet would together succeed in preserving the peace of the world.

The emperor, responding, spoke in high praise of the British fleet, which, he said, was the finest in the world. Germany, he continued, had an army fully equal to her wants, and if the British fleet fully met the demands of the great British empire, Europe could regard these two as most important factors in the preservation of peace.

Prince Henry also spoke in warm praise of the British fleet.

Habeas Corpus Refused.

DUBLIN, Aug. 8.—The court has refused the application for a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Mr. Charles Conybeare, member of parliament, who was sentenced to three months' imprisonment for conspiring to oppose the law.

Arrested for Being a German Spy.

PARIS, Aug. 8.—Capt. Rujac, formerly a member of the staff of Gen. Boulanger, and subsequently attached to the foreign office, has been arrested on the charge of being a German spy.

LOCKED UP FOR FORGERY.

A President of a Street Car Company a Defaulter for $130,000.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Eben S. Allen, president of the Green Line Street Car company, was arrested yesterday for forging certificates of stock, for about 700 shares. He was locked up in police headquarters. He has been president of the company for a long time and connected with the company for twenty-five years.

The amount of Allen's defalcation is stated to be $125,000 or $130,000. The prisoner has made a confession in which he says that four years ago he became financially interested in a patent fire escape. He lost all the money he put in, and in the embarrassment thus caused yielded to the temptation to raise money by false issues of stock. He forged the signatures of the company's treasurer and secretary, and sold about 100 shares of this bogus stock. Many of the shares are now in the hands of innocent holders. The false issue went on for four years without detection.

Yesterday, in President Allen's absence, a broker called at the office to have some stock transferred for a purchaser. The treasurer, in making the necessary comparison with the books, saw that the share numbers were duplicates. A meeting of the directors was at once summoned, and President Allen's guilt being apparent, it was decided to cause his arrest. Upon being locked up at police headquarters, Mr. Allen broke down and made a full statement to the foregoing effect.

The directors have decided to prosecute him to the full extent of the law. Allen has lived in a somewhat luxurious style for several months, having an elegant residence at Pawlings. He recently returned from a pleasure trip in Europe. He is about 50 years old, and has a wife and children. He has always had a good reputation in business circles.

After a Long Separation.

NORWICH, O., Aug. 8.—Will Clary, of Wellington, Lorain county, came to Fairfield, Huron county, and took his sister, Miss Clara Clary, home with him on Tuesday last. This brother and sister had not known each other's whereabouts since the death of their mother, which occurred ten or twelve years ago in a distant state, at which time the family became separated. Last Sunday Mr. Clary accidentally heard that his sister was in Fairfield, and on Tuesday came to offer her a home. It was a happy meeting.

Burke the Suspect.

RUMORS OF A CONFESSION.

A Much Needed Missing Link Discovered. A Writ of Habeas Corpus Issued for Burke's Release—A Mysterious Conference of the Authorities.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—The police authorities claim to be in possession of evidence which proves that Burke was one of the actual murderers of Cronin. At the same time they intimate that both Burke and Cooney were in this matter the dupes of Coughlin and Coughlin's bosses. They hold, therefore, that he is not responsible for the murder; that it grew out of Burke and Cooney's Irish fanaticism.

A rather startling admission has been made by a police captain. He said: "We have evidence showing that Dan Coughlin was in the Carlson cottage when Dr. Cronin entered. This evidence is not hearsay, but straight and direct. It supplies a much needed missing link."

The state's attorney is after a North Side city employee, who is a senior guardian of one of the Clan-na-Gael camps, and who threatens with bodily injury any Clan-na-Gael man who urges his fellows to tell all they know about the Cronin matter. This man is frequently drunk, carries a revolver, which he sometimes flourishes, and is quite free in using the epithets "traitor" and "spy."

A Mysterious Conference.

About 10:30 o'clock State's Attorney Gonseneker, Chief Hubbard and other police officials, together with half a dozen friends of Dr. Cronin, called at the armory and held a private conference. The object of the visit could not be learned, but it was rumored that it had something to do with Burke's alleged promise to reveal what he knew about the crime. None of the officials would confirm this, however. There was an air of mystery about the station, and all those who are believed to be "on the inside" were as dumb as oysters when approached for information.

Habeas Corpus Proceedings.

Yesterday Judge Baker issued a writ of habeas corpus, directed to Chief Hubbard, for the release of Martin Burke from the cell in the Harrison street station, in which he now reposes. The writ was obtained by Lawyer Kennedy, of Appleton, Wis., who has so far been refused permission to see his client. It was returnable at 3 o'clock, but was issued with the understanding that if the officials permitted Kennedy to see Burke before that hour the matter should be dropped.

Chief Hubbard at 5 o'clock replied to the writ of habeas corpus issued for the release of Burke, saying that the prisoner was not in his custody, that he was being held by one John Collins on a requisition from the United States on the government of Manitoba and Great Britain. Burke's attorneys then drew up a new petition asking that a writ of habeas corpus be directed to Collins, and Judge Baker issued an order for a writ as prayed for, returnable to-morrow.

SEIZURE OF THE BLACK DIAMOND.

Official Information Just Reaches the Treasury Department.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—The report of Capt. Sheppard, commanding the revenue steamer Rush, in regard to the seizure of the British sealer Black Diamond, which was mailed at San Francisco, has been received at the treasury department. Acting Secretary Batcheller refuses positively to give it to the press, but admits that it confirms substantially the newspaper reports concerning the seizure.

It contains no reference whatever to the escape of the vessel for the reason that that had not occurred when it was written. Neither does it give any explanation with regard to the smallness of the crew placed in charge of the prize, but the report is said to indicate that the vessel was not paroled, but was subject only to the control of the prize crew. Acting Secretary Batcheller said that as the question seems to have assumed political importance, he preferred to do nothing whatever in the matter without consultation with Secretary Windom, upon his return to the city.

NAPHTHA EXPLOSION.

Boiler of a Yacht Lets Go, Killing Four and Injuring Several Seriously.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 8.—At 4 o'clock yesterday morning, while the yacht Cedar Ridge, owned by Mr. L. L. Crocker, of East Buffalo, was being got ready for a trip down the river, and just as the engineer had started the fire two explosions occurred on board in rapid succession. The yacht at once took fire and burned to the water's edge. Of those on board the following were killed: Ethel and Larney Crocker, girls, burned; Howard Crocker, a boy, drowned; and Mr. Rubenstein. A carpenter working on the dock was burned to death by his boat house taking fire from the boat.

The injured are: Charlotte Crocker and Miss McLean, a friend, both badly burned, and Engineer Peter Colmyer, burned.

The explosion was due to naphtha by which the boiler was heated. Mr. Crocker is superintendent of the New York Central stock yards at East Buffalo, and the three children killed belonged to him.

As soon as the explosions were heard, a boatman named Caleb Talsma got a boat, and hurrying alongside, picked up

Miss McLean, who was badly burned. She was taken to Homeopathic hospital. She is about 28 years old.

The people who hurried to the scene were first attracted by the sight of Mr. Crocker's little son, who stood on the yacht's deck in a dazed condition, surrounded by flames. He seemed unable to move and when a man named Charles Schewengel reached a pike pole to him, the boy didn't take hold of it, and a moment later he fell back into the fire and was burned to a crisp in full view of the horrified spectators.

Mr. Schewengel's face was badly scalded while he was trying to get the little boy to grasp the pole. Attention was now directed to John Rubenstein, the carpenter, a man about 30 years old, who was clinging to a raft that extended out over the yacht. He could not be reached, and after hanging a few moments he apparently became suffocated and dropped into the flames below. He leaves a widow and five small children. Two other children of Mr. Crocker, Leonard Lemuel, aged 10 years and Ethel, aged 9 years, also perished in the flames. Another child, Charlotte, aged 14 years, was blown into the water whence she was rescued and sent with Miss McLean to the hospital.

The yacht was what is known as a naphtha launch, the fuel being naphtha. It was of fifteen tons burden. It is supposed that some defect in the tank allowed the naphtha to leak out and when the engineer struck a match to light the fuel under the boiler the loose naphtha exploded. The boat was bought by Mr. Crocker in New York last spring. It is completely destroyed, as is also the boat house.

Miss McLean was visiting the Crocker family from Detroit. Mr. Crocker himself barely escaped with his life. He is almost crazed by his bereavement. His wife has been very ill, and it is feared she cannot survive this shock.

THE COKERS' STRIKE.

Not a Car of Coke to Be Had in the Entire Region.

SCOTSDALE, Pa., Aug. 8.—The cokers at the Red Stone works of J. M. Schoonmaker have joined the strike. This, together with the information that the operators at Gallitzen had granted the advance asked for, filled the strikers with joy and renewed confidence. At noon Frick & Company were in secret conference with the leaders of the strike. It is reported that Frick & Company have offered an advance of 10 per cent. over former wages, but that the strikers will not accept the terms. This offer, however, is 33 per cent. of an advance over that previously made.

It is also reported that McClure & Company have asked for a compromise in a 10 per cent. advance, but this, it is said, will also be refused.

The mass meeting held yesterday was the largest ever held in the coke region. About 10,000 strikers were present. A resolution was adopted demanding uniform prices for all grades of labor; that one cent per bushel shall hereafter be the minimum rate, with a proportionate advance for all day labor and coke drawing.

There is not a car of coke to be had in the entire region, and cars from the western iron and steel mills are standing on the side tracks of all the works. It is stated here that some of the works in Ohio and Illinois are badly crippled on account of the strike.

A Deputy Shot.

BRADDOCK, Pa., Aug. 8.—An attempt was made yesterday to break the strike at the Carrie furnace by bringing in new men. Several had been driven away during the morning, and at 12:30 o'clock others got off the train at Keating Station and were met by deputies. The strikers followed and opened fire with a volley of stones. These not having the desired effect, pistols were used and one of the deputies was shot. The injured man was carried to the furnace office. The extent of his injuries could not be ascertained.

Arbitrators Report.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—The arbitrators selected to adjust the difference existing between the Coal Run miners and operators of Streator, have submitted their conclusions. J. E. Williams and Lyman J. Gage unite in finding that seventy-two and one-half cents per ton is a fair price for mining coal, while William F. Rend believes that seventy-seven and one-half cents should be the price, and is willing to go no lower than seventy-five cents in a compromise. The men struck last May against a reduction from eighty cents to seventy cents per ton. The miners will hold a meeting to-morrow to take official action on the matter. The articles of arbitration state that the award of any members of the committee shall be binding upon both parties. It is believed that both sides will abide by the decision.

Mrs. Harrison Goes to Nantucket, N. Y.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Mrs. Harrison, wife of the president, accompanied by Col. Wilson and her maid, arrived at 12:30 yesterday. Mrs. Harrison left on the Fall River boat last night, and will go to Nantucket to visit her sister, who is sick.

Subscribing to the World's Fair.

NEW YORK, Aug. 8.—Mayor Grant has received the first subscription to the projected exhibition of 1892, in the shape of the New York Sun's check for $10,000.

BAR HARBOR, Me., Aug. 8.—Mrs. Edmund Pendleton, a relative of Mrs. Pendleton Bowler, reported captured by Italian brigands, states that she has been in constant correspondence with Mrs. Bowler, and has no information of the capture. Mrs. Bowler is now at St. Moritz, Switzerland, her last letter having been received by the Pendletons two weeks ago.

PRESIDENT HARRISON doesn't seem to be near so popular with his party as he was last March.

KEEP your eyes on Colson and see if he doesn't bob up before long as an applicant for some Federal appointment or as a candidate for Congress in his district.

THE Democratic party has powerful backing in forcing the consideration of the tariff question to the front. In this the trusts are making themselves felt every day.

JEFFERSON, Owen, Fayette and Graves are the banner Democratic counties in the State, and they are among the wealthiest. They gave Sharp a majority of almost 10,000 this week.

ONLY one Independent will show up in the next Legislature. His name is Wolkling, and he hails from Covington. He's a good enough Democrat ordinarily, but he kicked out of the traces this time.

BRACKEN gave Sharp over 500 majority, while Blackerby, the Democratic nominee for Representative, defeated Byar, Independent, about 475. Cobb, the Prohibition nominee for State Treasurer, got only 30 votes in the county.

HON. W. O. BRADLEY's home county comes to the front with a gain of 241 in the Democratic majority this week, while the Democratic nominee for Representative carried Colson's county. What's the matter with these ranting demagogues? Have the people sized them up?

THE 155,000 Republicans of Kentucky elected one of their 65,000 colored voters to an office the other day—that of Coroner of Christian County. But even in this solitary instance, the Republican majority fell off from 1,200 to 150, says the Louisville Times. There is nothing at all surprising in this falling off.

THE Frankfort Capital thinks if "Mr. Colson will have himself liberally injected with Dr. Brown-Sequard's elixir of life, he may live long enough to be elected Treasurer of Kentucky." We have grave doubts on that point. It will be a long, long time before the people of Kentucky elect any Republican to a State office.

AS sugar mounts up in price under the manipulations of the sugar trust, assisted by the "high tariff" tax, let the victims understand that the Republican Senate defeated the bill by which nearly $12,000,000 in taxes would have been taken from sugar, and thus aided the trust robbers. The Hunterdon, N. J., Democrat's reminder of this fact is timely and to the point.

ALL is not serene by long odds in the local Republican camp. Some of the rank and file are open in their assertions that the "would-be leaders" prevented a nomination for State Senator in the recent campaign, and one was heard to characterize it as "a d—n sell-out." Captain Hutchins says he lost "the opportunity of his life" by failing to make the race. There's fun ahead for the Democrats.

THE Washington correspondent of the Louisville Times says: "Second Assistant Secretary Tichenor, of the Treasury, has recommended twenty-five men to the Secretary for special agents of the Treasury, and from that number fifteen are to be appointed. Mr. Joseph A. Sparks, of Vanceburg, Ky., is in the list, and here's hoping he may be one of the lucky ones. A search warrant could not reveal a better man for the place."

The Robbers of the People.

Since the organization of the sugar trust the retail price of sugar, a necessity of the people, has been raised 40 per cent.

The estimated profit of the sugar trust for the first five months of this year is $8,330,000.

What evidence, what rhetoric, what denunciation could be more damning than these figures?

Is there no limit to the patience of the plundered people?

A highwayman is sent behind the bars for stealing a few dollars from an individual.

The sugar trust manipulators are pilfering the whole public of millions upon millions.

This scheme is, to all intents and purposes, a gigantic robbery of the people, in defiance of the anti-conspiracy principles of the common law.

Colonel Charles B. Williams.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Aug. 5th, 1889.
Editor Bulletin—Colonel Williams was an old citizen of Maysville. He was born in Winchester, Va., April 15, 1802, and came to Kentucky in his 16th year. Was Mayor of Maysville several terms. He came to Christian County in 1854, and from that on was an honored member of the family of his aged relative, Mrs. Isaac Lewis, who died May 23, 1889. Colonel Williams' health failed rapidly after the death of Mrs. Lewis, though with his lifetime patience and fortitude he kept up to the very last, fulfilling day by day the little duties which he took upon himself to perform.

Always cheerful and uncomplaining, he was a favorite with all, and especially was he beloved by all the members of the family with whom he had so long lived. Since the death of the dear mother, he was nearer and closer to us all, and we bitterly feel the blow that has taken him from us.

He was sick only two hours, and calmly breathed his last, surrounded by loving hearts and ministered to by kindly hands, at 7:30 Wednesday afternoon, July 31.

I refer you to Hon. Wm. H. Wadsworth, a lifelong friend of the deceased, for additional particulars of his early life. I am sure that there are many old friends still in Mason who will feel an interest in this notice of Colonel Williams. Respectfully,

MRS. MARY F. ALEXANDER,

Ruggles' Camp Meeting.

CAMP GROUNDS, August 6, 1889.
The day was well spent in the service of God. At the 6 o'clock a. m. prayer meeting you could see that the Holy Spirit was at work, and as each service came on it became more manifest. Brother Hanford preached in the morning at 10:30 from Acts 3rd, and you do not have to be told that it was a good sermon. When Brother Hanford preaches we always hear a good sermon.

Rev. Persell, of Tolleboro, preached at 3 o'clock p. m. from Acts 3: 16, and at night Brother C. S. Marriott preached from II Kings, 19: 19. At the close of this sermon the invitation was given and the altar was crowded, some seeking conversion, some a deeper work of grace. There were four or five conversions, and the service throughout was glorious.

Rev. T. F. Garrett is doing a grand good work in the children's chapel. He has won the hearts of the little one, and his part of the work is being nobly done. God is blessing it with good results.

The recent arrivals are: Rev. Wm. Jones, of Asbury Church, Ky.; Rev. A. Boreing, of Covington, John Crane, Jane Morris and Miss See, the latter of Covington.

The gates were thrown open Sunday evening, and admission will be free to all until Thursday morning. J. W.

OF the will of Basil W. Alexander, a native of Maysville, the St. Louis Republic says: "Linden C. Alexander, son of the late Basil W. Alexander, and chief beneficiary under the will of his father, brought suit against Eugene C. Tittmann, administrator of the estate, for $53,000. He claims that he superintended the St. James Hotel at Kansas City for ten years at a salary of $5,000 a year, which he never drew. He also claims $3,000 on a note given by his father. The plaintiff was administrator of the estate of his father under the will, but was removed by the Probate Court on the prayer of other heirs who are contesting the instrument."

There are 1,258 miles of road now in course of construction in this country against 1,854 miles in January, 1888.

We are informed that the C. &amp; O. R. R. will buy the ferry boat and right-of-way at this place in the near future.—Ripley Bee.

M. E. Ingalls, President of the Chesapeake &amp; Ohio, says the road has been purchased by the syndicate that controls the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago &amp; St. Louis Railroad, but the two roads will not be consolidated.

Josiah J. White, of New York has filed a suit in the United States Circuit Court in Covington against the Chattahoochee Railway Company of Kentucky, the Union Trust Company of New York, George C. Wood, Samuel D. Davis, Jerry Collins and Anson Maltby, all of New York, asking for the foreclosure of a certain income mortgage that had been executed by the Chattahoochee Railway Company, and sets forth in his bill of complaint that he is the owner of twenty-five bonds of $1,000 each that were issued under said income mortgage, and which have been paid. Messrs. Wood, Davis, Maltby and Collins compose a committee that represents the bondholders who purchased the road in 1885, at foreclosure sale. Mr. Maltby is a relative of Colonel R. R. Maltby of Washington. It was reported recently that C. P. Huntington had bought the road.

Stock, Field and Farm.

W. D. Cushman's fine $10,000 stallion, Pilot Russell, full brother to Maud S., is being placed in trotting condition, at the Ripley track.

Threshing is proceeding at a merry rate all over the county, and will soon be finished. The yield of wheat is reported as heavy and in many cases beyond expectations. With fine crops of corn, tobacco, fruit, potatoes, hay and vegetables, as now secured or promised, this will be a year of plenty.—Ripley Bee.

Dick Mason, Mr. Wm. Branch's fine stallion, is in training at Stamping Ground, Scott County, on the track of Board &amp; Ferguson, owners of his sire. If Mason makes a reputation at trotting as good as he has at breeding fine colts he will force some man to whip his horse down the back to keep up. Mr. Ferguson says Mason is a better horse than his sire.

J. V. Leathers paid $520 for 132 ewes some months ago, and his returns from the investment up to the present figures up as follows: He sold the wool from them at $150. Of the 132 ewes 12 did not have lambs and the other 120 raised 157 lambs. Mr. Leathers sold 140 of these in May for $643.58, and in July 17 of them at $56.70, leaving 6 lambs on hand that are certainly worth $2 each. Within the last few days he has been offered for the original ewes what they cost him—$520. Thus from the investment he has already made a total of $850.28 in cash and still has the money first put in it.—Anderson News.

The Teachers' Institute.

The institute met at 9:30 yesterday morning.

Superintendent Galbraith presented the value and necessity of composition writing.

Professor Roark then took up "Civics," presenting an excellent outline of the subject.

Professor Roark called for definitions of "party." A number of definitions were given and criticized.

WEDNESDAY AFTERNOON.

The subject of "Geography" was discussed. It should be taught orally at first—points of the compass, direction, &amp;c. A topical analysis of geography was put on the black board for use in the schools. Map drawing in relief was discussed—methods of teaching, &amp;c.

The query box was then opened and a number of questions answered.

So far forty-seven teachers have registered.

Adjourned to meet at 9:15 this morning. Professor Roark will deliver a lecture at the High School building at 8 o'clock this evening. Subject: "The What, the When and the How of Teaching." All are cordially invited.

The Sioux Commission

How the News of Their Success Was Received.

WASHINGTON OFFICIALS HAPPY.

Some Extent of the Work That the Commission Was Called Upon to Perform. The Conditions by Which Eleven Million Acres of Land Will Be Thrown Open to Settlers.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 8.—Interior department officials are in a happy frame of mind over the successful completion of the work of the Sioux commission. The following telegram announcing the glad tidings awaited Secretary Noble on his arrival at his office yesterday morning:

FORT YATES, Dak., Aug. 6. Secretary of the Interior, Washington, D. C.: We have won the fight. We leave for Chicago to-morrow. Will write you fully from Chicago. FOSTER, Chairman.

The commission composed of ex-Governor Foster, Maj. Gen. Crook and Hon. William Warner, commenced their work among the Indians some two months ago. Their object was to secure the consent of two-thirds of the Sioux Indians, numbering 22,567, to a surrender of about one-half of their reservation of 21,000,000 acres of land to the United States government, which in turn would throw it open to public settlement.

According to the agreement just signed by the Indians they are to receive for the land surrendered about eleven million acres—$1.25 per acre for all land taken by homestead settlers the first three years, seventy-five cents per acre for all land taken the next two years, and fifty cents per acre for all lands taken subsequently. At the expiration of ten years should there remain any land not sold to settlers, the government agrees to pay them fifty cents per acre for it. The money received for the land the government will hold in trust for the Indians, and invest $3,000,000 at once in United States five per cent bonds, the interest of which will be devoted to the support of the Indians. One-half of the interest of this $3,000,000 fund is to be devoted to promoting education among the Indians.

The total amount received for the land surrendered, as it comes in, to be held by the government for the benefit of these Indians, they to receive the interest from it for their advancement in civilization and support, and such part of the principal as the secretary of the interior, from time to time, may think necessary for their maintenance. At the expiration of fifty years what is left of the fund is to be divided among the Indians per capita.

The agreement further provides that the unsundered lands shall be divided into six reservations, as follows: Rosebud, Cheyenne River, Crow Creek, Lower Brule, Pine Ridge and Standing Rock.

A portion of the 11,000,000 acres restored to the public domain makes a slice between the Cheyenne reservation on the north and Rosebud reservation in the south.

Secretary Noble is so well pleased with the work of the commission that he has sent them a telegram of congratulation, and has forwarded Governor Foster's telegram to the president at Bar Harbor. No doubt is expressed that congress, when it assembles, will ratify the work of the commission.

Mysterious Murders.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 8.—The finding of the dead bodies of Ollie Jones, his wife and two other persons, was reported yesterday evening from Carvallis, a small town in Butler Root valley, in western Montana. A young girl who had been shot in the hip, was also found on Big Hole mountain. All of the dead had been shot in the back. A party was formed to bring in the bodies. No further details of the affair could be obtained, as Carvallis is without telegraphic facilities. Jones was married at Messoula three weeks ago and was on the road to his ranch.

A Cyclist Sets Himself a Huge Task.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—At 7 o'clock yesterday morning F. W. Vansicklen, a prominent bicyclist of Chicago, left this city on his wheel for Kansas City, which he expects to reach by Friday night. To do that he will have to ride 123 miles each day. Mr. Vansicklen hopes to do this by steady hard work. This gentleman is the same one who rode from New York to Albany last June, making the 168 miles in seventeen hours and ten minutes, which still stands as the record. He is a well built fellow, with a wonderful constitution.

Explosion of Chemicals.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 8.—By an explosion of chemicals used in preparing the fireworks for the spectacular production of "The Siege of Sebastopol," which occurred at 11:30 yesterday at Kensington's garden in the western part of the city, John Smith and Dick Lightner were seriously, perhaps fatally, burned, and $500 worth of property was destroyed. Prompt action of employees and the fire department saved the scenery and the garden.

Seals Worth Fighting For.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 8.—The Post Express publishes an interview with Henry A. Glidden, ex-secretary of the Republican state committee, who was treasury agent at the Seal Islands in Behring sea for three years under Secretary Folger. Mr. Glidden says the islands are worth fighting for, and that unless protected the seals will soon be exterminated. The seals and blue foxes are the only valuable product of the islands.

Two Miles a Minute.

LAUREL, Md., Aug. 8.—A test was made here yesterday of the Weems electric railway system. The promoters of railway claim that the test developed a speed of two miles a minute, but there were no newspaper reporters present. They say that it is proposed to build a line five miles long on Long Island, to demonstrate the applicability of the system, to passenger use.

THE CONSTITUTION FRAMERS.

Almost Through With Their Work at Bismarck—Filibustering at Helena.

BISMARCK, N. Dak., Aug. 8.—The constitutional convention at yesterday's session discussed the question of railroad taxation, and adopted the section providing that railroads shall be taxed at not less than $3,000 nor more than $7,000 per mile. In the afternoon the report of the committee on public institutions, locating the capital permanently at Bismarck, etc., was adopted. It is now predicted that the convention will adjourn within a week.

Filibustering at Helena.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 8.—There was a fight in the constitutional convention yesterday over the location of the capital. In committee Bozeman was agreed upon, but upon this being reported to the convention the friends of other cities filibustered until recess was ordered.

Another Daring Train Robbery.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 8.—A dispatch received here says that the Rio Grande western train, known as the "Modoc," was held up by train robbers near Crevasse, last night. They forced the fireman to attempt to chop through the door of the express car, but as he was unable to force the boiler iron door, they gave it up and went through the train with drawn revolvers and collected $900 and twenty watches. Most of the passengers were successful in hiding their valuables. A posse has started in pursuit of the robbers.

It May Not Be Tate.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Aug. 8.—The man arrested at Scottsboro has not yet been positively identified as the absconding treasurer, Tate. One of the detectives who arrested him has been arrested on an indictment for burglary.

G. A. R. in the South.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Aug. 8.—A memorable ceremony will take place here on Friday next, when the Robert Anderson post, the first post of the G. A. R. in South Carolina, will be mustered in within the walls of Fort Sumter. There was a post of the G. A. R. in this city in 1870, but it was composed mostly of colored men and politicians. The present post is composed of Union soldiers who have settled here since the war, all white and none of them politicians. It is named after the gallant Anderson, who defended the fort against the state troops in 1861, and has a roll of about thirty members. The command will be escorted to Fort Sumter at 2 p. m. on Friday by a number of Confederate veterans, who held the fort for over four years against the Union troops.

A Big Fire in Fort Wayne, Indiana.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 8.—A loss of about $150,000 was caused by a fire which started last night in A. C. Trentman's building on Calhoun street.
